

NATO SUPPORT AND PROCUREMENT AGENCY AGENCE OTAN DE SOUTIEN ET D'ACQUISITION

Allan McLeod
Director
Life Cycle Management

Allan McLeod joined the NATO Support and Procurement Agency (NSPA) in June 2018. Before taking up his current responsibilities as Director of Life Cycle Management in January 2021, he served in the Agency as Deputy Director Support to Operations.

Prior to his arrival at NSPA, Mr McLeod served in the British Army for 33 years, the final ten in the rank of Brigadier. He is an experienced logistician, an internationalist and a strategic planner. He served in a wide variety of staff and command posts in the United Kingdom, Germany, Cyprus and France and spent much of his career deployed. Operational and training assistance tours included Northern Ireland, Uganda, Bosnia, Kosovo, Kuwait and Afghanistan.

In addition, he worked for nearly 10 years in the NATO Force Structure, with tours in the French Rapid Reaction Corps and in the Allied Rapid Reaction Corps, as Deputy Chief of Staff Combat Service Support. He was an instructor at the UK's Joint Staff College and is a graduate of the Royal College of Defence Studies in London.

Mr McLeod holds a degree in History and Politics, and Masters degrees in Defence Technology and International Relations. He enjoys most sports and is passionate about classic cars.
